

Washington, DC – Harry Teague will spend this weekend in Valencia County, hosting outreach events as well as attending the New Mexico State Firefighters Association Conference in Mountainair.

Teague will begin the weekend on Friday by visiting the Fred Luna Senior Center in Los Lunas to meet with area residents. Teague will then go to the Los Lunas Home Depot store for a tour of the facility. He will also visit with Home Depot employees and shoppers.

On Saturday, he will begin the day by hosting a “Harry in Your Hometown” outreach event at the Pueblo of Isleta’s Elderly Center. Following that event, Teague will return to Los Lunas to continue his “Harry in Your Hometown” program at the Valencia County Administration Building’s Commission Chamber. Community members are encouraged to attend and meet with Congressman Teague one on one to share their thoughts and questions with him and to learn more about how his office can help them solve problems with federal agencies.

Congressman Teague has hosted over 100 “Harry in Your Hometown” events across southern New Mexico since taking office in January, 2009. The “Harry in Your Hometown” program is a community outreach initiative developed by Teague to help him stay in touch with constituents throughout New Mexico’s second congressional district. He has also opened 6 Congressional Field Offices and his staff hosts weekly Mobile Office Hours throughout southern New Mexico.

Harry Teague will also attend the New Mexico State Firefighters Association Conference in Mountainair. Teague will address the audience and spend time meeting and visiting with firefighters from across southern New Mexico.

All interested media is invited to attend.
